Rules:

Needed: Two to six players; 36 card deck (aces down to 6s).

Card Rank: Highest to lowest - A, K, Q, J, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6

Deal: Six cards to each player, one card at a time. The next top card is flipped up and the remaining deck is placed on top of it. The suit of the card flipped up is the trump suit for the round.

Objective: The object of the game is to avoid being the last player with cards.

Game Play: During game play there are attackers and a defender. The defender is successful when he/she is able to beat all attacks made, and is unsuccessful if he/she is unable or unwilling to beat an attack. The first attacker is the player with the lowest trump card. The first defender is the player left of the first attacker. An attack consists of a player playing a card into the middle. A defense is made by beating the card played. An attack card can be beat by a higher ranking card in the same suit, or any trump card if the attack card is a non-trump suited card.
